

About Us

Wildwood Curriculum is truly a group effort and we are proud to introduce you to people who are volunteering hundreds of hours behind the scenes to make this dream a reality.

CREATORS

Marjorie Lang

Marjorie has been homeschooling since 2001. She met and married her husband while they were both in the US Navy in 1994. They have a blended family and while most of their children are now adults, they had an unexpected surprise blessing and are beginning their homeschool journey all over again with their youngest daughter.

Marjorie is sold on the Charlotte Mason lifestyle and strives to make it accessible to everyone, regardless of personal beliefs or cultural background.

Jennifer Gehman

Jennifer is a homeschooling mother of five children - three have graduated from homeschool to post-secondary, and two are still learning in the living room. She has been using a Charlotte Mason approach since the beginning.
